

Apple Of His Eye

Patricia W. Felker

I'm the APPLE OF HIS EYE
In the orchard of His dreams
I've been called to be of service
In the company of Kings
Some people picked me over,
But, it's not bad as it seems
'Cause I'm the APPLE OF HIS EYE
In the orchard of His dreams

(Verse 1)

From the time I was a blossom
Giving off a sweet perfume,
I could tell that I was special me
Like a honeysuckle bloom
But the honeysuckle faded,
It's petals fell to earth
While I went on to produce a fruit
Exceptional in worth
(Repeat Chorus)

(Verse 2)

There's going to be a banquet
He's planning for this night
A culinary feast of delectable delight
He's been saving up the best for when the date was fin'ly here
I'll be at the place of honor
By the King of Heaven's chair
(Repeat Chorus)

(Bridge)

Yes, I'm going to take my station
At the table of the king
At the banquet of all banquets
I'll be harmonizing
(Repeat Chorus)
