

I Will Walk, I Will Run

Patricia W. Felker

Dedicated to the memory of Tori Cooke

There's a Hope that's sure
An Anchor secure
I can trust with my life till the end
There's a home I'll find
On the other side
Bought with blood from His precious lamb

Chorus:

I will walk, I will run
To my brother, God's Son
Where His arms are opened wide
I will feel His embrace
While we talk face to face
When He draws me to His side

There's a trusted Friend
Who'll walk with me then
And His name's ever faithful and true
He will hold my hand
In the promised land
While I sing hymns of praise He's due
(Chorus)

Bridge:

I will sing of His praise for eternity
With the saints I will worship Him,
I will treasure the sound
While the heavens resound
With sweet praises to the Lamb (the Lamb)
(Chorus)
